The Feast of Trumpets

Leviticus 23:24-25

The Bible refers to the holiday as Yom Ha-Zikkaron (the day of remembrance) or Yom Teruah (the day of the sounding of the shofar). The shofar is a ram's horn which is blown somewhat like a trumpet. In fact, many English bibles translate the word "shofar" as "trumpet." One of the most important observances of this holiday is hearing the sounding of the shofar in the synagogue. Religious services for the holiday focus on the concept of God's sovereignty.

The Days of AWE

This is a time for serious introspection, a time to consider the mistakes of the previous year and repent before Yom Kippur. One of the ongoing themes of the Days of Awe is the concept that God has "books" that he writes our names in, writing down who will live and who will die, who will have a good life and who will have a bad life, for the next year. These books are written in on Rosh Hashanah, but our actions during the Days of Awe can alter G-d's decree. These "books" are sealed on Yom Kippur.

The Day of Atonement

Leviticus 16:29-30

Yom Kippur is probably the most important holiday of the Jewish year. The name "Yom Kippur" means "Day of Atonement," and that pretty much explains what the holiday is. It is a day set aside to "afflict the soul," to atone for the sins of the past year. On Yom Kippur, the judgment entered in the "books" is sealed. This day is, essentially, your last appeal, your last chance to change the judgment, to demonstrate your repentance and make amends. Yom Kippur atones only for sins between man and God. (1 year to Seal up Sin and Atone for Wickedness)

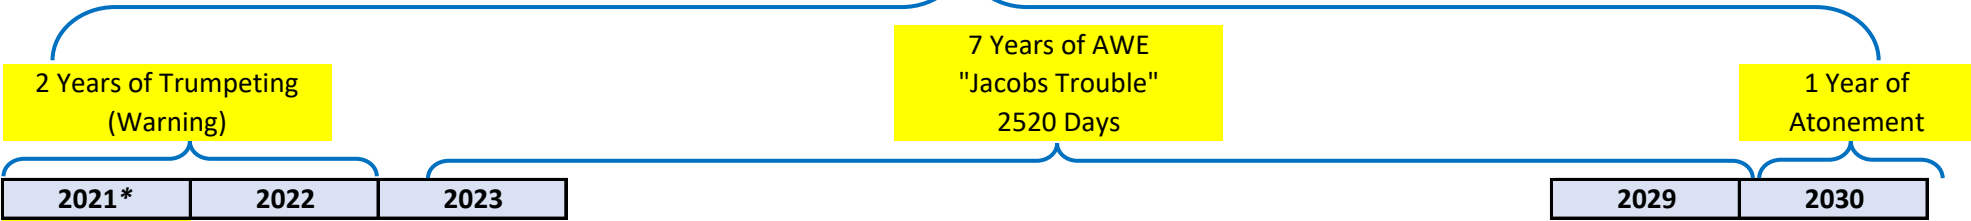

10 Days of AWE / End Time Parallel

Keeping with the understanding that Prophecy is Pattern, this chart explores the idea that the "Pattern" of the Fall Feast 10 days of AWE may also be the "Pattern" for the End Time 10 years of AWE. Daniel 9 provides the template for a prophetic day equaling 1 year.

10 Years of AWE
10 Years of Repentance

* J. R. Church wrote a book discussing the possibility of the Psalms being prophetic for each year beginning in 1901. Based on this, Psalm 121 would correspond to the year 2021. Psalm 121 is the second Psalm of ascent and contains a unique Hebrew character that has been interpreted as changing the meaning to "the action of ascent". Many believe "the action of ascent" refers to the rapture. For this reason I chose 2021 as the starting year for this "Pattern".

1 Thessalonians 4:16-18

For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.

Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Luke 21:34-36

Be on guard, so that your hearts will not be weighted down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of life, and that day will not come on you suddenly like a trap; for it will come upon all those who dwell on the face of all the earth. But keep on the alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are about to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.

10 Days of AWE / End Time Parallel

This chart begins with the Abomination of Desolation in the middle of the tribulation. The chosen date for the middle of the tribulation is the day Antiochus set up the statue of Zeus in the Jewish Temple (Kislev 15). From the middle of the tribulation count 1260 days before and after to speculate the start and end dates.
